About NCJTC

National Criminal Justice Training Center of Fox Valley Technical College (NCJTC) is a leading national criminal justice training organization dedicated to equipping criminal justice professionals with training and tools to affect lasting and meaningful change in the communities they serve. We leverage the knowledge of subject matter experts to deliver quality innovative training, expert instruction, and culturally relevant technical assistance solutions for combating prevailing public safety and community challenges. NCJTC has significant experience working in culturally sensitive areas, serving more than 8000 tribal members representing over 200 tribes nationwide. Through this work, we have a broad understanding of the unique issues tribes face and have documented ability to utilize our competencies to strengthen criminal justice response and promote collaboration.
